R FW (Tea & Cake. Jane will be in a large sitting room, which is perfect as a gallery space. Downstairs toilet)

Jane's creativity has roots in her creative family background. She retrained in textiles after originally completing an English degree and teaching. For over 20 years she has taught textile classes across the East Midlands mainly to adult groups, alongside regularly exhibiting her textile work, presenting talks and demonstrations, together with taking part in selling events.

She is a member of the Living Threads Textile Artists and has taken part in Open Studios events solo and with Gedling Artists.
